

We ask that the FCC NOT implement any proposal that would lessen IN's telephone privacy law. Since Indiana's privacy law, we receive nearly zero unsolicited calls. Previously our meals and lives were interrupted at least half a dozen times a day. We should not have to pay for a phone line for telephone solicitors.